

With the support of

International Workshop

THE EU AND ITS VALUES IN ITS NEIGHBOURHOOD — CONTESTATION AND CONSISTENCY

3 October 2014

Palazzo Matteucci
Piazza Torricelli 2, Pisa

Organised by the
Jean Monnet Chair
Department of Political Science,
University of Pisa
Via Serafini 3, 56126 Pisa

Contact:
Professor Sara Poli

Participation is free but registration is required due to space constraints. Please, send us an email to register by 25 September to: euvalues2014@gmail.com.

Programme

9:00 Registration

9.20 Welcome address

Professor Sara Poli (University of Pisa, Italy)

Session 1: EU values and contestation

Chair: Professor Marise Cremona (European University Institute, Italy)

9.40 EU values and objectives of the European neighbourhood policy

Professor Sara Poli (University of Pisa, Italy)

10.00 Normative Market Power Europe? The Role of Values in the European Neighbourhood Policy

Professor Sieglinde Gstöhl (College of Europe, Belgium)

10.20 The EU and the Eastern Partnership region's normative convergence from a public perspective: assessing the differences

Professor Elena Korosteleva (University of Kent, UK)

10.40 Discussion

11.10 Coffee break

11.40 Values and contestation in the EU-Russia relations: a legal approach

Professor Paul Kalinichenko (Moscow State Law Academy, Russian Federation)

12.00: Mass media in the Russian Federation today

Professor Elena Dundovich (University of Pisa, Italy)

12.20 General Discussion

Session 2: EU values and consistency

Chair: Professor Enzo Cannizzaro (University of Rome "La Sapienza", Italy)

14.30 Consistency from an institutional perspective

Professor Peter Van Elsuwege (University of Ghent, Belgium)

14.50 The fluid concept of 'EU values' in the neighbourhood: A change of paradigm from East to South?

Dr Nariné Ghazaryan (Brunel University, UK)

15.10 Discussion

15.50 Coffee break

16.15 The association agreements with Ukraine, Georgia and Moldova through the lens of consistency

Professor Roman Petrov (Kyiv-Mahyla Academy, Ukraine)

16.35 Promoting the rule of (international) law in fragmented borderlands: The European Union, Israel, and the Palestinians

Professor Raffaella Del Sarto (European University Institute, Italy)

16.55 Discussion

17.30 End of workshop

